To be sold reasonably by John Pell, of Sheffield, in the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay, Farmer;

THE New-Hampshire Title to

Twenty Thousand Acres of a certain Tract of rich fertile Land, erected by the said Government into a Township by the Name of Tunbridge, situate, lying and being within this Province, about Thirty-six Miles North of Charles-Town or Number-Four, bounded easterly by Strafford, southerly by Royalton. The Number of Families that have for four or five Years past settled upon the adjoining Lands affords the strongest Prospect of that Tract being speedily settled:—For Particulars apply to John Kelly, who is empowered to sell the same.

WILLIAM DONALDSON.

By Captain Jenkins who arrived at Boston on Sunday 21st Feb. in 32 Days from London, and but 19 from the Land's End, having been caught in the Ice in the River near a Fortnight: we have Prints to the 15th of January, from which we have extracted the following Advices.

LONDON, December 3.

THE price of Boroughs is now increased to four thousand guineas, and 'tis thought they will be still dearer, in some places, before the general election.

The mob which arose at Kedderminster in Worcester-shire last week, amounted to near 2000; they forced the farmers to sell their wheat at 5s. a bushel, which before was sold at 7s. and their butter for 6d. a pound, which was sold for 8d. They paid for what they had, and then went home quietly.

Dec. 18. From a neighbouring Island we learn, the disapprobation of the leading persons in the government and the discontent of all ranks is at so high a pitch, that it is found necessary that they should immediately be supplied with another governor.

Dec. 22. The Right Hon. the House of Peers are adjourned to Thursday January the 20th, and the Hon. House of Commons to the 14th of the said month.

Friday some dispatches of great importance were said to be received from Sir Henry Moore, Governor of New-York.

Dec. 24. Yesterday his Majesty was pleased to appoint the Right Hon. Earl Gower to be President of the Council, in the room of the Earl of Northington, who has resigned; he was at the same time sworn one of his Majesty's most honourable Privy-Council, and took his place at the board.

Dec. 26. 'Tis estimated that the ensuing Election will cost the various Candidates at least one million sterling.

Dec. 28. It is reported as an undoubted fact that a certain great man finding himself no longer able to look proud connections in the face, has at last agreed that the coalition so long talked of should take place, on condition that a certain number of his friends should still continue in their places.

Dec. 29. Numbers of our Manufacturers are daily shipping themselves off for the happy regions of America.

The outrages committed by the Journeymen Weavers on account of the present scarcity of Work, is estimated at five hundred pounds a week.

Jan. 2. Lord Chatham, it is said, intends to make a Tour to Italy, after the rising of Parliament.

Jan. 4. Preparations are making at the old Secretary's office at the cockpit, in order for some of the clerks from Lord Shelburne's office, who have the management of the American business, to remove there, to act under the Earl of Hillsborough, who is appointed Secretary for that department; being too much for one Secretary.

Jan. 6. It is said that the grand coalition, which is to take place, has deprived a certain Exile of all hopes of returning to his native country; and that it was in consequence of his having received early intelligence of such coalition, upon his late arrival in this kingdom, that he so very suddenly returned to his exile.

Jan. 8. It is confidently said, that a bill for triennial Parliaments will be bro't into an Hon. House this session, and strongly supported; several members being resolved to take this method of recommending themselves to their constituents at the ensuing general election, in preference to bribery and corruption.

It is said that large commissions have this week been received from Corsica for fire-arms, gun-powder and shot.

We hear that the ports of Ireland and America will be opened soon after the Parliament meets, for the free importation of all kinds of provisions.

In the last Holland mail is the following article, dated Lisbon, Dec. 1. "The Hon. William Henry Littleton, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great-Britain, holds frequent conferences with the Ministry; in order to settle, in an amicable manner, the misunderstanding which has arisen between the two nations, on account of trade. He takes great pains to remove this stumbling-block; for as to the general system of Politics, it is certain that the most perfect harmony subsists between the two courts, notwithstanding the reports that have been maliciously propagated to the contrary.

Jan. 1. It was whispered Yesterday, that a celebrated Motion, intended to be made in a certain assembly, is postponed till after the Holidays.

Jan. 6. On Monday evening the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham, who came to town on some private affairs set out for his Seat at Hayes in Kent.

We are credibly informed that for the future, no pensions will be granted on the Irish establishment, but to such persons as actually reside in the said Kingdom.

The newly established Secretaryship of State for the American Colonies, we hear, is considered as one of the most important offices under the Government, and will always be filled by a Personage of the first consequence.

Jan. 9. We are told the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Weymouth will be shortly appointed one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, in the room of the Right Hon. Mr. Conway, who, we are informed, resigned the seals on Thursday.

We are assured from very good authority, that the E— of D— did not resign the Presidency of the Board of Trade, merely "because his Lordship was not appointed Secretary of State for the Colonies; but because the noble Lord did not approve of the unstable disposition of some of the leading members of the administration; and because his Lordship would not acquiesce in the erecting an important (tho' necessary) new office of state, in the way of a ministerial job; and which has since actually taken place in another channel.

The situation of political matters in regard to L— C—, seems to be, that the Ministry are very desirous of his Lordship's retiring, and yet are totally deficient in spirit of coming to compulsive measures with him. On the other hand, we have it confidently affirmed to us, that the noble Lord has made the following declaration, in a letter to a very great man in power: "His M— having been graciously pleased to entrust the — to my keeping, if it pleases God to spare my life, there are many, very many days to come, before I shall voluntarily decline the honour my Sovereign has tho't proper to confer upon me."

The King has been pleased to appoint Thomas Shirley, Esq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Bahama Islands in America.

We hear, that yesterday the Right Hon. Henry Seymour Conway, Esq; resigned his place as secretary of state.

Jan. 11. On Friday a Council was held at the Cockpit, Whitehall, relative to the affairs of the British colonies in North-America.

'Tis said the title of Duke of York will be conferred on Prince Frederick, his Majesty's third son.

From the west end of the town we hear, that many of the politicians there are confidently of opinion that in case the intended coalition takes place, it will be but a very short lived one.

We are informed that a noble Earl and his brother are not to be included in the said coalition.

'Tis reported at the West end of the town, that a change in the ministry is again talked of; and that the Right Hon. Earl T— and his friends are to compose the principal part of a new administration.

We are informed that there has lately been discovered in one of our American colonies, an almost inexhaustible fund of a Saltpetre mine.

There are at present more ships exposed to sale, than at any time these ten years.

They write from New-York, that the culture of tobacco is to be made one of the principal objects of promoting the interest and trade of that province. What a lie!

BOSTON. February 22.

It is said that the Committee who reported the Answer to his Excellency's Message last Week, ask'd Leave of the House to sit again.

We are assured from good Authority, that Richard J—kf—n, Esq; late Agent of this Province, who is a Member of Parliament, at a very opportune Season, expressed his Mind fully against the Settlement of Salaries on Governors, Judges, &c. in America, independent of the People. By the Act of Parliament so much complained of, his M—y has the Power of appointing such Salaries to be paid out of the Monies to be raised by the Duties on Glass, Paper, Tea, Painter's Colours, &c. &c.—We are inform'd that a Question has been under Consideration in a certain respectable Assembly, Whether fix'd Salaries for Governors and Judges in America, who hold Commissions during Pleasure, especially considering them at so great a Distance from the Throne will not have a Tendency to introduce absolute Government? and that their Sense of the Matter has been transmitted to our Superiors at Home—Procul a Jove, procul a Fulmine, is often the Consolation of corrupt Men: If ever the Scene should alter, and the Nation should be cur'd with a weak and arbitrary Prince, and a wicked Minister, and the Legislative should be inattentive to the common Rights of the Subject, a ministerial Attack upon the Constitution in America may perhaps be thought the first necessary Step towards overthrowing the Liberties of the whole Empire. Britain! Beware!

It is said that at a political Club, a Question was lately stated, which was the most dangerous to a free People, an Army of Soldiers, or an Army of Pensioners? After much Altercation it was the universal Opinion that a free People would be in more Danger of being subdued by Pensioners than Soldiers. In either Instance with the utmost Exertions of Virtue and public Spirit, the Case would be hazardous: But should a People be attacked by both these formidable Powers at once, it would then be desperate!

Feb. 29. Paragraph of a Letter from a Merchant in Bristol dated in November last—"The Gentlemen who are concern'd here in the Manufacture of Window Glass and other Kinds of Glass Ware, have been up to London with several of our principal Merchants here, to endeavour, if possible, to get the Duty on Glass taken off, but they have found it impracticable, and are therefore returned.—The Government are determin'd to have a Revenue rais'd upon sundry Kinds of Goods exported to America, and it's generally thought both in London and here, that in the Spring of the Year, they will lay further Duties upon many Sorts of Goods exported to America."

Letters from London, mention that American affairs will be taken into consideration on the 16th of January, immediately after the meeting of Parliament. No person whatsoever, is to be admitted, and the doors are to be kept shut during the whole time of the deliberation.

By a Man from Dutchess County, we hear that Sir William Johnson had sent an express to New-York, informing that the Indians had cut Major Rogers to Pieces at Michilimackinac, in Resentment of his Abuses of them in Trade.

About three Weeks ago, a Lad of about 17 Years of Age, belonging to Hampton, in crossing Winnipicockee Pond, froze both his Legs to that Degree, that there was a necessity of cutting them both off last Week; which was performed by Dr. Jackson of Portsmouth.

We hear from Litchfield, in Connecticut, that last Monday se'nnight, as two Indians who had had a Dispute some Time before, accidentally met in the Street, when the Dispute was immediately settled, by one of them striking the other so violent a Blow on the Head with a Hatchet as that he expired next Morning; and 'tis said his Squaw would have shar'd the same Fate, had not two Gentlemen, who beheld the Scene, immediately interposed in her Behalf:—The Murderer was the same Night taken up and committed to Litchfield Gaol.

In our last Paper we gave our Readers a short Account of the Proceedings of the House of Representatives upon that most important Consideration, so universally interesting to the American Colonies, A TAXATION WITHOUT CONSENT: Since which we hear they have directed a Letter to the Lords of the Treasury.

WE then mention'd a Part of the Conduct in the Hon. House, which serves to show that Openness and Candor, as well as Freedom in their Determinations, which ought always to be Characteristic of the Representatives of the People:—This Proceeding occasion'd a Message from the Governor, of which the following is said to be a Copy.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives.

I Answer to your Message of the 13th Instant, I find it necessary to inform you, that soon after the Letter of the Earl of Shelburne was read in your House. I ordered a Copy of it to be given to the Speaker, to be used, as he should think fit; upon Condition that no other Copy should be taken thereof. I am very willing that the Copy in the Speaker's Hands should be communicated to you in any Manner that is consistent with that Restriction. I know of no Letters of my own, that I think can be of any Use to you upon this Occasion.

I quite agree with you in Opinion that all effectual Methods should be taken to cultivate an Harmony between the several Branches of the Legislature of this Government, as being necessary to promote the Prosperity of the Province; and I shall cheerfully join with you in all proper Measures for so salutary a Purpose.

THE House having read this Message, appointed a Committee to consider it, who on the 18th reported an Answer, which was accepted, and is said to be as follows, viz.

May it please your Excellency.

YOUR Message of the 16th Instant has been read and duly considered in the House of Representatives. The manner in which your Excellency was pleased to introduce into this House the letter from the Right Hon. the Earl of Shelburne, by giving orders to the Secretary to read it without leaving a copy, appeared to be unprecedented and unparliamentary; but this made but a light impression on the House, when the members recollected, as far as they could, the unfavourable sentiments his Lordship thought himself necessitated to entertain of the two houses of this assembly, and of some particular members in this house, whose characters, in the opinion of this house, stand unimpeachable. Under this apprehension, they thought it necessary for their own vindication, humbly to request your Excellency to favour them with a copy of his Lordship's letter; and as it appeared to them, that his Lordship had form'd his sentiments of the two houses, and their members, from your own letters, to which he refer'd, the house tho't they could not do themselves and their members justice, unless they could be favoured with a sight of them also, and accordingly requested it of your Excellency.

You are pleased to say, that "you know of no letters of your own, that you think can be of any use to the house upon this occasion."—The house did not in their vote or message, say what occasion they had to request them: But when his Lordship expressly says, that it appears from your several letters, that your negating Counsellors in the late elections, was done with due deliberation and judgment; it is natural for the house to conclude, that your Excellency had thought it convenient to give his Lordship the peculiar reasons you had for a measure so rare and extraordinary.—These reasons seem to have prevailed to justify your Excellency: For his Lordship acquaints you, "that his Majesty is graciously pleased to approve of your having exerted the power lodged in you by the constitution of the province": But unfortunately for the two houses his Lordship passes a different judgment upon their conduct, and takes occasion to applaud the wisdom of those who fram'd the charter, "in providing that a power should be placed in the Governor as an occasional check upon any indiscrete use of the Right of electing counsellors."—It evidently appears from this passage, that his Majesty's Minister has conceived an opinion of the two houses as having made an indiscrete use of the Charter Right: The House were willing to be convinced that this opinion, and other sentiments express'd in his Lordship's letter, which imply an high censure upon the two houses, and upon particular members of this House, were rather inferences drawn from your letters, in which his Lordship might be liable to mistake, than the direct expressions of it: Had your Excellency been pleased to have favour'd them with the copies, they might have been "of use upon the occasion," and satisfactory to the house: But as you have thought proper to refuse them, they are left to conjecture with all possible candor, and appeal to the world.

His Lordship is induced to believe that the assembly have made an indiscrete use of their Right of choosing counsellors; "to the exclusion of the principal officers of government from the Board, whose presence there as counsellors so manifestly tends to facilitate the course of public business, and who have therefore been before this period usually elected;" and that they have thus exerted their right with a far different intention from that of promoting the "re-establishment of tranquility," and "evinced the duty and attachment of the colony towards G. Britain."—The house would be glad to justify this construction of his Lordship's Letter, which is nearly in the words of it, by publishing it in their journals, but that is inconsistent with your Excellency's restrictions.—This is not the first time that his Majesty's ministers, and even his Majesty himself, after having had before him your Excellency's letters, and the enclosures, has thought it necessary to form an opinion of his loyal subjects of this province as having a degree of ill temper prevailing among them: And your Excellency cannot be insensible that the present house have heretofore for the sake of conciliating the minds of the people & restoring a unanimity to this General Court, requested your Excellency to give them the opportunity of making it evident to their constituents, that your letters had no tendency to induce such an opinion: And the house still think that nothing would tend to promote the salutary purpose of cultivating an harmony between the several branches of this legislature, in which your Excellency expresses a disposition cheerfully to join with the house, than an open and unreserved explanation to each other: For this purpose the house in their message assured you, that they were ready to lay before you their humble petition to his Majesty, and their representations to his Ministry, with all their other proceedings upon the important matters that have been before them, at the same time that they made their reasonable request of your Excellency's letters.—

After having recited so great a part of the sentiment of his Lordship's letter, no one can be astonished at the conclusion he is pleased to make, that "under such circumstances it cannot be surprising that his Majesty's Governor exerts the Right entrusted to him by the same constitution, to the purpose of excluding those from the council whose mistaken zeal may have led them into improper “excesses, and whose private resentments” (and his Lordship adds, he should “be sorry to ascribe to them motives still more blameable) may in your opinion further lead them to embarrass the administration, and endanger the quiet of the province.”—Surely his Lordship would never have pass’d such a censure upon two houses of assembly, nor upon particular gentlemen altogether strangers to him, but upon what he thought to be the best authority: It is far beneath his character and dignity, to give credit, or even to hearken to any account, so prejudicial to the reputation of the province, and of particular persons, but what he receives from gentlemen in the highest stations in it.—Your Excellency must allow the house to believe, until they shall be convinced to the contrary, that your several letters to which his Lordship refers, are so fully expressed, as to have left his Lordship no room to suspect that he could be mistaken.

In such a case your Excellency cannot think that the house can remain in silence: They recommend to their injured members a becoming calmness and fortitude; and take this occasion to bear a testimony to their zeal for the honour of their King, and the Rights of their Constituents: But the character of the people whom this house represents, as well as their own honour, is at stake, and requires them to take every prudent measure for their own vindication. The house are truly sorry that this new occasion of mistrust and jealousy has happened; but they can never be so wanting to themselves, as to omit the opportunity of removing from his Lordship’s mind, the unfavourable impressions which appear by his letter; and what is of much greater importance to them, of standing before their Sovereign, in their own just character of loyal subjects.

We are told that the foregoing Message was presented to his Excellency on Saturday last.

On Friday the 26th Instant the House of Representatives, came to the following Resolutions which they order’d to be made public, viz.

WHEREAS the happiness and well being of civil communities depend upon industry, economy and good morals. And this House taking into serious consideration the great decay of the trade of the province; the scarcity of money; the heavy debt contracted in the late war, which still remains upon the people, and the great difficulties to which they are by these means reduced.

RESOLVED, That this House will use their utmost endeavours, and enforce their endeavours by example, in suppressing extravagance, idleness and vice, and in promoting industry, economy and good morals in their respective towns.

And in order to prevent the unnecessary exportation of money, of which this province has of late been so much drain’d: It is further RESOLVED, That this House will, by all prudent means, endeavour to discountenance the use of foreign superfluities, and to encourage the manufactures of this province.

When the question was put upon these Resolves, the House declared it by yeas and nays; there were Eighty-two members, of whom the following 81 gentlemen gave their voices, yea, viz.

[Here follows the names of the Representatives.]

The Hon. Timothy Ruggles, Esq, gave his single Voice in the Negative.

It is hoped that this will be thought by our Brethren in the other Colonies, as well as in G. Britain, to be an ample Testimony of the Sense of this Province, in Confirmation of the Measures of the Town of Bolton; and that the True Patriot, like a Man of Honour, will retract his positive Assertion that those Measures were only the last Efforts of an expiring Faction.

Branstable, February 19, 1768.

A few Days past a Number of our Branstable Ladies paid me a Visit—dress’d all in Homespun; even to their Handkerchiefs and Gloves, and not so much as a Ribband on their Heads: They were entertain’d with Labadore Tea,—all innocently cheerful and merry. In order to recommend themselves, as the Ladies had done in some other Places, towards Night we had the Company of some of the chief Gentlemen of the Town, who all drank Labadore Tea.

NEW-YORK, March 10.

Extract of a Letter, received by a Gentleman in this City, from his Friend at Albany, dated 1st Instant.

I Am of Opinion that Messrs. Jacob H. Ten Eyck, our old Member, and Col. Philip J. Schuyler, will be return’d Representatives for this City and County, Mr. Dove, our Mayor declines the important Trust, much against the Inclination of the whole City, and I believe he would very willingly serve the People another seven Years, could he possibly do it consistent with his Interest and Health; the People in general have press’d him very much to serve them again, and when they found they could not prevail upon him to accept of the Post, they made Choice of Col. P. J. Schuyler, to represent them with the old Member, and they will no Doubt unanimously be elected on Thursday next, the Day fixt upon for holding the Election. On Saturday last the Election was held for the Manor of Ranfelaer, when Mr. Abraham Ten Broeck was chosen, without one dissenting Voice; and Yesterday it was held for the Township of Schanectady, but how Matters will go there, cannot yet be determined, Messrs. Schermerhorn and Mynederts offer themselves to the Public, and its conjectured the Contest will be pretty warm between them, as each Person has been very busy making Interest for some Time past, and I believe their Interests are pretty equal.”

On the 27th of February, Peter R. Livingston, Esq; of this City, Merchant, was chosen a Representative for the Manor of Livingston, in the County of Albany. Jacob H.
